

Speakers and Topics

66th Annual Brennemann Lectures

October 22-25, 2009 • Disney's Paradise Pier® Hotel

David A. Ferry, MD, FAAP, FACC - Cardiology

Director, Pediatric Cardiology, Cedars-Sinai Medical Center, Los Angeles, CA; Associate Clinical Professor of Pediatrics, David Geffen School of Medicine at the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA)

Dr. Ferry will be speaking on:

1. Stimulant Medications: The Role and Necessity of a Cardiac Evaluation
  2. The Pediatric Cardiac Cath Lab: New Advances in Therapies
  3. Evaluation of Syncope, Risk of Sudden Death and Screening of the Pediatric Athlete
- Round Table: Hypercholesterolemia: What's the Big Deal?

Chester J. Koh, MD, FAAP - Urology

Division of Pediatric Urology, Childrens Hospital Los Angeles (CHLA); Director, CHLA Robotic Surgery Program; Principal Investigator, Developmental Biology, Regenerative Medicine, and Surgery Program, Saban Research Institute, CHLA; Assistant Professor of Urology, Keck School of Medicine of the University of Southern California (USC)

Dr. Koh will be speaking on:

1. Pediatric Urology Potpourri : A Review of the Old and the New
  2. Robotic Surgery in Children for Pediatric Urology Conditions
  3. Prenatal/Antenatal Hydronephrosis – What Should the Pediatrician do for their Patients in 2009?
- Round Table: UTI: What should the Pediatrician do for their Patients in 2009?

Wilbert H. Mason, Jr., MD, MPH, FAAP – Infectious Disease and Vaccines

Professor of Clinical Pediatrics, Keck School of Medicine, University of Southern California (USC); Head, Division of Infectious Disease, Childrens Hospital, Los Angeles (CHLA)

Dr. Mason will be speaking on:

1. Pediatric Pneumonia: Management in the Era of Antimicrobial Resistance
  2. Emerging Infectious Diseases in Pediatric Practice
  3. Faster, More Sensitive, More Specific-at a Cost: Molecular Diagnosis in Peds ID
- Round Table: Vaccine Fears and Controversies: How to Approach Reluctant Parents

Vincent J. Wang, MD, FAAP – Emergency Medicine

Associate Professor of Clinical Pediatrics, Keck School of Medicine, University of Southern California (USC); Associate Division Head, Division of Emergency Medicine, Childrens Hospital Los Angeles (CHLA)

Dr. Wang will be speaking on:

1. The Outpatient Management of Fever in the Neonate < 2 Months Old
2. Mammalian Bites
3. Facial Trauma

Round Table: Orthopedic Emergencies, Local Anesthesia and Nerve Blocks

Cliff Rubin Lectureship and Keynote Speakers-Advances and Controversies in Reproductive Technology: Social Implications as seen through Octomom

Mark Surrey, MD Clinical Professor UCLA School of Medicine, Chief of Gynecologic Surgery and Clinical Chief for the In Vitro Fertilization Center at Cedars-Sinai Medical Center

David Hill, PhD, HCLD Scientific Director of the ART Reproductive Center at Southern California Reproductive Center