

Speakers and Topics

68th Annual Brennemann Lectures

September 22-25, 2011 • Bahia Resort Hotel

Cora Breuner, MD, MPH (CAM)

Homeopathy: The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly

Oil and Water Don't Mix- Updated Information on Vitamin/Herbal/Supplement Interactions

What about Other CAM Interventions - How Does East Safely Meet West?

ROUNDTABLE: Yes, You Can Be a Holistic and Integrative Pediatrician - In Fact You Probably Are!

Thomas Hofstra, MD, (Hematology)

The Bleeding and Bruising Child: Recognizing When to Worry and When to Watch

Anemias: What Every Pediatrician Needs to Know

Platelet Disorders: Managing ITP and Inherited Platelet Problems

ROUNDTABLE: Thrombophilia – Clots in Kids

Dechu Puliyaanda, MD, (Nephrology)

Hematuria - A Simple and Practical Approach to Evaluation

Proteinuria: A Primer for the Pediatrician

Renal Stone Disease in Children

ROUNDTABLE: Hypertension: It's Not Just for Internists Anymore!

Robert Wells, PhD, (Behavioral Psychology)

What Can a Pediatrician Do to Help Anxious Children Using Cognitive Behavioral Treatment Strategies

The Drug Abusing Teen - What Advice Should Be Offered to Parents?

Update on Obsessive Compulsive and Associated Disorders – Detection, Diagnosis and Management

ROUNDTABLE: Treatment Strategies for Parents Seeking Help with Common Childhood Behavioral Complaints

Michelle Pietzak, MD, Keynote Speaker, (Probiotics and Prebiotics)

The Influence of the Gut Microflora and Probiotic Bacteria on Pediatric Health and Immunity